

Bessie in Lake Erie. Gaasyendeitha in Lake Ontario. Sister Lakes Sasquatch in Dowagiac. These are just some of the curious creatures of the Great Lakes area.

The Great Lakes area has a long history of lake monsters and sea serpents. Learn about what may be lurking beneath the Great Lakes' surface.

Shetan Noir will take you on a journey through the fossil records and Native American legends to historical sighting reports.

WHEN: Thursday, March 23 @ 6 pm

WHERE: South Haven Memorial Library

314 Broadway, South Haven, MI

(269)637-2403

www.shml@shmlibrary.org

About Shetan Noir:

Shetan Noir is a Michigan based author and current owner of Sasquatch GQ magazine, Cryptozoology Digest, as well as other magazines, and a paranormal travel journalist. She also teaches courses on the paranormal history of the Great Lakes and cryptozoology of North America at Owens Community College and Kellogg Community College. She is currently the lead investigator for the Michigan chapter of the North American Dogman Project and runs the paranormal investigation team of the Michigan Center for Unexplained Events and Phenomena.

