

March Book Madness 2023

The FINAL FOUR - Your Predictions for 2022 Book of the Year

The FINAL FOUR have been voted on by the players! This round's winner – the one who came closest to a perfect bracket for this round – is Jan Voress!!! Congratulations, Jan – you won a \$10 gift certificate to Café Julia! Remember: ONLY those players who turned in their paper brackets are qualified to win prizes. Vote for your favorites and earn a chance to win prizes in our weekly drawings. Each week we will tally the votes to narrow down the list of book contestants until only one remains. The remaining book will be our 2022 Book of the Year

If you turned in your March Book Madness bracket picks before 6:00 p.m. on Friday, March 3rd, you qualify for a chance to win tournament prizes – one winner for each round plus a GRAND PRIZE WINNER. If your bracket is the closest to picking the winning books, you will win! Pick up your bracket form at the library and fill it out. You must turn in your predictions in person on your paper form and have it signed by a library staff member, who will make a copy and return it you.

Vote in the link on the SHML website or Facebook through March 13th for your favorite Final Four books. Then, the tournament will heat up as those titles are seeded and face off in head-to-head competition. Each week in March, vote on the Google Doc to narrow down the list of contenders until a single title emerges as the South Haven Memorial Library 2022 book champion!
