

Public Use of the South Haven Memorial Library Bulletin Board Policy

Community bulletin board space is available only to organizations engaged in civic, educational, cultural, or non-profit activities. The Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of any group or individual. Postings must meet community standards for good taste in presentation. The library, however, welcomes a broad spectrum of opinion and a variety of viewpoints.

Postings planned by a company or individual to promote, advertise or lead to sale of its products and services are not permitted.

The SHML maintains the right to approve the size of material displayed and the length of time materials remain on the community bulletin board. Display materials are considered disposable and the library staff may remove and discard as necessary.

Use of community bulletin board space is free of charge.
